Rev. R. T. Vann.

This young gentleman is one of the most remarkable personages in the State. When quite young he had both arms crushed off in a sorghum mill, yet notwithstanding this drawback, he has reach a plane of culture and of usefulness which may be envied by many men who have not had the disadvantages against which he has had to contend. He graduted at college after this with first honor, and his sermo s now mark him as one of the rising young men of the

Though handless, he can write with the stumps of his arms; he turns over the pages of a book with his lips, and plays croquet with a skill which is wonderful. He has those elements in him which will not let him give up, and with his brain and perseverance, the future has good things in store for him.

The World's Ways.

A marriage in the First Baptist LBS. SOUTHAMPTON Church, yesterday morning, and a funeral in the afternoon. The bridal party, with their flowing draperies and bright faces had scarcely swept down the aisles and through the portals, ere another party, clad in the habiliments of woe, entered the church, and the organ which had just before perled forth so merrily, now moaned its funeral notes, and sighed chorus to the sobs of the stricken ones. But this is the fashion of all creation, and it is a divine decree, that there is a time to laugh as well as a time to Weep.

Afternoon Edition of the News.

Our western readers will observe that, since the recent change of schedule on the North Carolina Railroad, we have commenced the publication of an evening edition of the News for their benefit. This will contain all of the dispatches of the night previous, together with those 50 Sacks Java, Costa Rica and Laguyra received in the afternoon, up to the hour of going to press. The afternoon telegraphic markets of the same day are also given, thus enabling us Prime Medium and Common Rio Coffees. to lay the very latest news before our readers along the line of the North Carolina and connecting roads. This edition will continue as long as the present schedule continues in force.

Office Fayetteville street, next to SandrayStf. occurred four miles from the city, several nights ago) was up before Justice Magnin, yesterday afternoon, and had a hearing. The Justice thought the evidence was sufficient to "show probable eause," and held the defendant to bail in the sum of $200, which he gave.

Meeting of the Board of Aldermen. The Board of Aldermen held a meeting last night at the call of the Mayor. Present: His Honor the Mayor, and Aidermen Adams, Anderson, Carmer, Cooke, Flemming, Green, Lumsden, Murray, West, Wilflams and Upchurch.

The object of the meeting was explained to be the amendment of the secolution adopted at the last meeting of the Board, relative to a water supply for the city, so as to have appointed on the committee of citizens, to act in conjunction with the committee from the Board, ten members instead of three.
Alderman Murray opposed the mo-

Alderman Adams said that the city had not enough money now to pay its current expenses, and be thought there were other things more needed than water works There being no money to pay for them, he saw little ase in discussing the matter further. Alderman Anderson said that what was proposed now would cost nothing. The committee hitherto appointed bad already entered into correspondence with parties experienced in such matters, with a view to procuring estimates, and one or two gentlemen had offered to come before the committee to explain the system of water works and to give such information as might be desired. Even if this were not now used, it might be valuable in future, and as these gentlemen proposed to come, it was hoped that they would be allowed to Alderman Upchurch wanted to know how the water works were to be built without money, and moved that the whole matter be laid upon the table until Raleigh is better able to take such a step.

Alderman Anderson requested a withdrawal of the motion while he explained. The motion was withdrawn and he went on to say that neither the committee nor the Board would sustain a particle of expense in securing this information, as these gentlemen proposed to come here of their own accord. As to payment for the water works, he had stated previously that this could be done by the issuance of bonds.

The question being upon the motion to add to the committee of citizens, it was put and adopted, and His Honor the Mayor appointed the following: W. J. Hicks, W. W. Holden, John Nichols, J. B. Neathery, Stewart Ellyson, Dr. McCallum, Julius Lewis and Jas. Jones-one of these in the stead of Thos. Briggs, Fsq., who declined to serve.

The business for which the Board met having been transacted, on motion, the meeting adjoined.

Took a Tank Hose Instead of a Mail

Yesterday morning, as the train on the Richmond & Danville Railroad, passed Concord, about 1 o'clock, the arrangement which is new in exis:ence on that road for taking up mail bags at stations where this through express doesn't stop seized, instead of the mail bag which was fastened to the "crane" arranged for the purpose, the hose of the water tank by the side of the track. The hose was cut all to pie :es and drawn up into the mail car, and carried on to Charlotte, being returned by the next train.

The proof that those route agents on that line do not understand "mail catchers," lies in the fact that they have thus early begun to take up tank hose instead of mail bags. Railroad men are tickled over this inc. dent of yesterday morning.

Contributions to the Fair.

T. E. Marable, Esq., Treasurer of the Petersburg, (Va.,) Iron Works, writes to Capt. C. B. Denson, Secretary of the North Carolina State Agricultural Society, that it will afford this company pleasure to contribute one of their plows to the special premium list, and that it will be sent as soon as they are notified that it is wanted.

W. Judson Brown, Secretary of the Piedmont Guano Company, of Baltimore, also writes to Capt. Deuson, that his company will gladly offer one ton of their guano as a special premium for the best tobacco grown in this State, and will ship it at any time that may be specified.

Very many premiums well worthy to be competed for by our farmers will be offered at this Fair .

In the Wrong Pew-

There is not a more long-suffering young man in town than the genial night cierk at the Yarborough House, but when a countryman stepped in there last evening and after looking around awhile asked if they kept furniture there for sale, the young man felt the demon within him assert itseif, and after taking the man and swabbing the floor with his head, he caught him by the collar and shook him till his liver turned over, and then rolled him on his back and sat down on his stomach. There is a point beyoud which forbearance ceases to be

Marriage of Mr. Pool and Miss Up-

The Salisbury Street Baptist Church was crowded, yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, by a crowd anxious to become spectators of the marriage of Mr. S. C. Pool and Miss Virginia, daughter of W. G. Upchurch, Esq , which had been announced to take place at that church at that hour. Shortly after the hour mentioned the couple around Which the principal interest contered, entered the church, attended by the following brides-maids and groomsmen: F. O. Mor-ing, Miss Pattir A. Upchurch; John W. Upchureb, Miss Dora Wright; J. C. Pool, Miss Luia Featress; V. B. Tomlinson, M'ss Maggie Williams; W. A. Myst, Miss J.ule Lambreth;

W. H. Pace, Miss Minnie Reinhardt. The bridal party having taken their positions, Rev. Dr. Pritchard proceeded to pronounce in eloquent and solemn manner, the ceremony which made the couple man and wife. All were dressed in travelling costume, and from the church the bride and groom, accompanied by many friends proceeded to the Ruleigh & Gaston train, upon which they left, for a trip to New York, Niagara and other points of interest, returning by way of Philadelphia.

The bride's presents were numerous and elegant. The most beautiful and costly, was a watch and chain, the watch iulaid with pearls. These were expressions of regard from a few of her many friends. Scores of hearts go out in affection to the young couple, wishing them a pleasant tour and a safe return.

The Late Samuel W. Price.

The remains of the late Samuel W. Price, Esq., arrived in this city, yesterday afternoon, and were met at the Raleigh and Gaston depot by quite a delegation of friends. They were conveyed to the Sal'sbury Street Baptist Church, where the funeral services took place Rev.Dr. Pritchard officiating. The Index-Appeal, of Pe ersburg, Va., in which city the deceased was well known, having lived there for some time, gives the following particulars of the death of Mr. Price, who was spending a few days with an old friend in Baltimore, Mr. Henry Roper: "On Saturday afternoon, while playing a game of croquet, be complained of feeling chilly and retired to his room. A short while afterward one of the family entered his room to see how he was, but finding bim, as was thought. asleep, did not disturb him. Half an hour later be was again visited, when he was discovered in an insensible condition. The alarm was at once given, but medical skill proved unavailing. He had a congestive chill, from the effec's of which he did not recover consciousness, and from which he died on Sunday afternoon about one o'clock."

Mayor's Court.

Wm. Gordon, colored, was up for fast driving through the streets, and was fined $1 and cost. Walter Fowler, was up for failure to list two dogs, and was sentenced to pay the tax on the dogs and the cost of the case. Richard Smith was up for drunk and disorderly, and was returned to Court. Russell Spencer, colored, for failure to list his dog, pays the tax and the cost. Pompey Smith, for the same offence, same penalty, John Phoenix, for false protence; make restitution and pay

The following warrants bave been issued and the cases will probably come up to-day: Jos. Rlackwell, colored, for false pretence, Wm. Edwards, Jr., Madison Hughes, John Brown, Evans Alston, Ralph Alston, Marcellus Upman, Andrew Haywood, Jas. Hanna, Fab. Chavis, and John Day, all colored, for failure to list their dogs.

Depot Robbed.

The depot at Lockville, on the Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line Railroad was entered by thieves, Monday night, and robbed of all the tickets which it contained. Besides, a lady's trunk was broken open, and every article in it, save only a pin-cushion, was stolen. The lady is from Texas, and had gone over to Pittsboro. The back driver told her that he could not carry her trunk over with her on Monday, but it could stay in the depot one night, and he would take it the next day. That night it was forced open and robbed. Various articles were taken from the depot at the same time.

The Business Season.

Merchants report that business has brightened up very materially within the past week, and that there s every indication of returning prosperity. The people seeing this have begun to relax their hold on the money which they have, and trade is beginning to resume its wonted activity. After the painful luli of months past, the "unlimbering," so to speak, will be balled joyfully, as the indications of it begin to de-

Rev. James A. Taylor.

The following which is copied from a Culpepper county (Va.) letter dated 29th ult., to the Richmond Dispatch, will be gratifying intelligence to the many friends in this State of the gentleman whose name heads this article :

"The Rev. James B. Taylor has been on a visit to his friends in Culpepper. Mr. Taylor was for a num-ber of years after the war the Baptist minister at this place. Beloved by old and young of all uenominations, a nobler-hearted, purer-minded man never lived than James B. Taylor. Since he left us he has been very ill at Wilmington, N. C., his new home and was taken from his bed to the station on starting for Virginia. Since reaching here he has strengthened hourly, so that now he visits his many friends and acquaintances without fatigue or trouble. tend keeping him here until refreshed in mind and body, we can wish him God-speed to the field of his new

Strange Occurrences.

Strange things are coming to pass here of late. Yesterday morning early a dog ran along Fayetteville street with a bologna sausage in his mouth longer than the dog itself, and so heavy as to tilt the animal's hind legs up like the unoccupied end of a see-saw. It wasn't more than a minute after this, before a goat went galloping over a rock crossing on the same street, and knocked fire out of one of the rocks with a corner of his hoof. Add to these things the fact that old man Henderson Smith came up town, Monday afternoon, and we think it is about time to call prayer meetings of the people.

Applications for Weights and Meas-

The standard-keepers of the counties of Perquimans, Auson, Alamance, Carteret and Graham, have applied to the Governor for authorized weights and measures, and these have been sent. These weights and measures are furnished to the States by the general government, upon application, and by the authorities of the States given, upon application, to the standard-keepers of the counties.

Convicts for the Penitentiary. Sheriff J. M. Monger, of Moore county, arrived in this city, yesterday morning, bringing with him four prisoners for the Penitentiary. These were convicted last week at Moore's Court and their names, colors, crimes and terms are as follows: Ned Cox. colored, larceny, 2 years; Will Dowdy, colored, larceny, 2 years; Levy Wray, colored, larceny, 2 years; Ben Perry, white, larceny, 2 years. Putting the Race Track in Order.

The race course on the Fair Grounds is being put in order for the approaching Fair. The track is being covered with loam, it having been washed considerably by the rains of last winter, and the turns are being made higher, they having hitherto been too low. Two carts and a necessary force of hands are at work on the grounds, and they will be in perfect order by the time the Fair begins, on the 16th of October.

Judge Fowle's Charlotte Speech.

As good authority as the Charlotte Democrat, says of the speech of Judge Fowle in that city last Friday: "To say that it was a powerful effort does not adequately convey an idea of the masterly, elequent and argumentative manner in which Judge Fowle handled the Political topics of the day."

Colored Fair.

The colored military company had a fair, last night, at Hayes' Church, for the purpose of raising money to buy uniforms. They were headed by Stanly's Band, and the procession was followed by a street full of darkies, of all sizes, reminding one of the reception committee which met Judge Settle at the depot when he arrived here last week.

New Boarding House.

Mrs. J. H. Enniss will shortly open a boarding house over the " North Carolina Bookstore and Publishing House," corner of Fayetteville and Morgan streets. She will take permanent and transient boarders and furnish lodgings when these are desired. The second story of the house is now being fitted up for this purpose.

The Excursionists.

A large and happy crowd got off, yesterday morning, on the Raleigh and Gaston train for the Centennial. There had been sold 75 of the Sunday School excursion tickets, and independent of these, 45 of the regular Tuesday- excursion - tichein, making in all 120 excursionists of the Sunday School crowd, quite a number

A New Bridge.

A new Howe Truss Bridge is being built over Neuse River, on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, to take the place of the old lattice bridge. The new bridge is similar to those over Tar River and Cedar Creek. It is thought that it will be finished some time in Ootober.

THE BAYONET IN THE SOUTH

The Administration has shown its hand. The circular letter of Attorney General Taft, discloses the whole game. The Federal Government is to supervise the elections; United States Marshals are invested with extraordinary powers; the troops are to stand with loaded rifles near the ballot boxes, as they did in 1868; and the gleam of the bayonet will be seen where should flash only the sword of the law. An open and most shameless attempt is to be made to overawe

This step has been anticipated. The Republicans are desperate; they have always been aggressive and unscrupulous; and we could expect nothing less than that they would strain the United States statutes: place the soldiers "in marching order"; set in operation the whole machinery of the government, and em ploy every other means, fair or foul, the citizens of the South.

to secure the triumph of their ticket. The duties of the Southern citizens is plain. Having no desire or purpose to intimidate; wishing above all things a quiet, peaceful, thoroughly law-abiding election-we must keep cool, bear patiently all that men ought to bear, and thus give the Federal authorities no excuse for interference at the polls. The mere presence of the troops can do no harm. except to intimidate, possibly, the colored men who are disposed to quit the corrupt Republican party and vote with the Democrats.

THE COMING ELECTIONS. POLES:

Highly Important Circular Letter from Attorney-General Taft.

[Associated Press Dispatch.] WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.-The following was referred to General Sherman for his guidance by the Secretary of War and transmitted to United States Marshals for their government

"Sir:-the laws of the United Etates having made it my duty to exercise general direction over Marshals in the manner of discharging their offices, I have prepared for their use this circular letter of instructions as to the coming elections, intending the same also as a reply once for all to numerous applications in like connection from private citizens in various States.

In the present condition of legisla. tion the United States occupy a position towards voters and voting which varies according as the election is for State and other local officers, only, or for members of Congress and Presidential Electors. In elections at which members of the House of Representatives are chosen, which by law include also elections at which the Electors for President and Vice-President are appointed, the United States secures voters against whatever in general hinders or prevents them from a free exercise of the elective franchise, extending that care alike to the registration lists, the act of voting and the personal freedom and security of the voter, at all times; as well against violence, on account of any vote that he may intend to give; and as against conspiracy because of any that he may already have given.

The peace of the United States. therefore, which you are to preserve and whose violation you are to suppress, protects, among others, the rights specified in the last paragraph, and any person who by force violates those rights, breaks that paragraph, and renders it your duty to arrest him and suppress any riots incident or that threaten toe integrity of the registration or election, to the end that the will of the people in such election may be ascertained, and take effect and that effenders may be brought before the courts for punishment.

Notorious events in several States which recently and in an unusual manner have been publicly reprobated, render it a grave duty of all Marshals who have cause to apprehend a violation of the peace of the United States connected as above with the elections to be held upon the Tuesday after the first Monday in November next, to be prepared to preserve and to restore such peace. As the Chief Executive officer of the United States in your District you will be held responsible for all breaches of the peace of the United States which diligence on your part might have prevented and for the arrest and securing of all persons who violate that peace in any of the points above enumerated. Diligence in these matters requires of course that you be, and continue present in person or by deputy at all places of registration or election at which you have reason to suspect that the peace is threatened, and that whenever an embodiment of the posse comitatus is required to enforce the law, such embodiment be effected. You will observe that the 'special" deputies mentioned in section 2.021, of the revised statutes, have peculiar duties assigned to them, duties which otherwise do not belong to deputy Marshals, Such " special " deputies can be appointed only in cities of twenty thousand inhabitants or upwards; but the duties assigned to Marshals and their deputies by section 2,021, or other like statutes, belong to all duly appointed deputies, whether they be general or be special, within the meaning of that and the preceding section. Deputies to discharge this latter clause of duties may be appointed to any number whatever, according to the discretion of the Marshal, in all States in which Sheriffs have a similar power. Section 2,030 has no practical bearing upon this point in States where no limit is imposed upon the appointment of deputies by sheriffs, because in such States the laws of the United States "prior to the 10th of June, 1872, left Marshals also unlimited as to the number of their deputies."

In discharging the duties above given, you will doubtless receive the countenance and support of all good citizens of the United States, in your respective districts. It is not necessary that it is upon such countenance and support that the United States mainly rely in their endeavor to enforce the right to vote which they have given or have secured. The present instructions are intended only to counteract that partial malice, wrong-headedness or inconsideration which sometimes triumphs at critical moments over the conservative, and in general, prevailing forces of society, and to which the present and passing condition of the country gives more than ordinary strength, and therefore requires the Government particularly to preserve and provide against. In this connection I advise that you and each of your deputies, general and "special," have a right to summon to your assistance in pre-years of . whatever may be the THE COMING ELECTIONS. occupation, whatever may be the occupation, whether civilian or no, and including the military of all denominations, milit'a, soldiers, inarines, all of whom are alike bound to College. obey you. The fact that they are organized as literary bodies, whether of the State or of the United States, onder the immediate command of their own officers, does not in any ofse Affect the legal character; they are still the posse comitatus. I prefer to quote the above statement of the law upon this point from an opinion by my predecessor, Attorney-General Cushing, because it thus appears to have been well settled for many years-

> Opinions, vol 6 p. 466 May 28th, 1854, I need hardly add that there can be no State law or State official in this country who has jurisdiction to oppose you in discharging your official duties, under the laws of the United States. If such interference shall take place, a thing not anticipated, you are to disregard it entirely, The laws of the United States are supreme and so consequently is the action of officials of the United States. In enforcing them there is (as virtually you have been told no officer of a State Whom you may not by summons embody in to your own posse, and any State posse already embodied by a sheriff will with such sheriff be obliged upon your summons to become a part of the United States posse and obey you or your deputy acting virtute officii. The responsibility which devolves upon an officer clothed with such powers and required to guard the highest rights of citizens, corresponds in degree with those powers and rights, and exacts of such officer consideration, intelligence and

Beyond the above, the sparuos It is proper to advise you that in preparing this circular, I have considered recent important judgments given by the Supreme Court of the United States upon the acts of Congress which regulate this general topic. I have founded the above instructions upon those acts as effected by such judgments, and I need in this place add no more than that these judgments do not concern elections for federal officers. You will find appended in full or by reference such statutory provisions as it seems important that you and your deputies shall, in this connection, read and consider. In matters of doubt you are, of course, entitled to the advice of the United States attorneys for your district.

These instructions have been submitted to the President and have his approval. Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant (Signed) ALPHONZO TAFT, Attorney General.

WESTERN REPUBLICANS.

Another Important Letter from Buncombe.

ASHEVILLE, Sept. 2, '76. Mr. Editor :- The "significant facts" furnished in your correspondent's communication of the 24th ult. from this place, seem to have had some effect. It is stated now, upon what seems to be good authority, that fearful of the consequences of such an act, the Greensboro clique, that is, Keogh, Douglass, Settle and Smith, have concluded to reconsider the re. moval of Rollins for the present. This much is certain, that up to this date, Mott has received no official notice of his appointment, and Rolline has been requested to hold on, until arrangements for the consolidation of the 6th and 7th Collection Districts are perfected. His office was closed yesterday for all business purposes, according to directions from Washington. Mr. Rollins still persists in declaring that the only reason for his removal is to be found in his support of Bristow at the Cincinnati Convention. Perhaps ninety-nine out of every hundred mountain Republicans, white and black, were Bristow men, and are opposed to the corrupt practices of such intimates of Grant as Belknap and Babcock, whose frauds Bristow did so much to expose. You may rest assured, therefore, that Mr. Rollins has the sympathy of this large Republican element, and that they will sustain him in any movement he may make to vindicate his rights. It may be added that a number of leading and influential Republicans declare openly, that while they do not expect to vote for Vance, they cannot and will not support Settle and Smith. The reason assigned is that Smith is known to be hostile to the completion of our Western Roads and does not deny it : and as he is much the superior of Settle, both in intellect, will, and force of character, he will control matters his own way in case of his and Settle's election.

Another significant fact is, that, although two issues of Mr. Rollins' Pioneer have appeared since it was made public that he attributed his removal to his support of Bristow at Cincinnati and to the efforts of Settle, Smith, Keogh, and Douglass against him, he makes no denial or explanation of the statement of facts contained in your correspondence of the 24th August, from this place. So that statement stands as a truthful version of the condition of things among Western Republicans.

BUNCOMBE. Matt Carpenter does not hesitate to state, in Washington, that he is convinced from what he deems reliable informaventing and quelling disorder, every tion that Wisconsin will cast her electperson in the district above fifteen oral vote for Tilden and Hendricks.

"The Settle procession was composed entirely of colored men, so far as we could judge, with a number of little darkies to carry the lighted rags and the smoked paper transparency." After the speaking, the colored supporters of Judge Settle then went to the vicinity of Five Points, drummed a few recruits and justice-dodgers, and then marched through the streets a number of times, with yells that would have reflected credit on the blackest demons of another world. That the procession was composed for the most part of that oathbound league called the "Never Meets," we have little doubt.

Mr. Editor:- In the hope that the subjoined very timely, vigorous and pointed editorial that appeared in the Philadelphia Times of August 29th, may have a wider reading, I send it to you and ask that you publish it. In elevation of thought and felicity of expression it surpasses any production that the present political cortest has afforded as far as I have seen, I doubt not if it was written by the main editor, (ol. Alex. McClure, who was never a Democrat, but for ten or twelve years was one of the most adroit and able party leaders in the Pennsylvania Republican camp. His paper, the best and bravest of its class, is really what it claims to bea thoroughly independent paper, giving free expression to its views without party fealty or party fear before it. There is a strange blunder in one statement of the article, considering the ability and information of the writer. He says the South does not make a 'generous tr.bu'e to the rational debt and expenditures," and that the North has to bear "the whole burden of the government." Nothing could be more erroneous. He should have consulted the records before venturing upon such an absurd and untrue statement. The South actually bears more than its share of the national "debt and expenditures" in the enormous taxes that are collected from its oppressed despoiled, maligned, and impoverished people. In addition to the immense taxes levied upon her people, should be considered the fearful and irremediable damage that is inflicted upon her material prosperity by the periodical assaults made upon her by an unscrupulous and vindictive auministration. The article is otherwise admirable for its force, truth, manliness and patriotic eloquence. As my friend Col. Jas. S. Amis says, it deserves to be copied into every paper in the South. Will you not allow the readers of the NEWS to enjoy it? Very truly yours,
T. B. KINGSBURY.

LET US HAVE PEACE!"

The nation must have peace! It is the first aspiration of every patriotic heart North and South, east ard West. It comes up spontaneously from every business interest; from every mart of commerce, from every channel of industry, from every home of plenty and from every centre of want. It pervades the prayer of every sincere devotion, breathes it gospel in every faithful teaching, and has its altar wherever religion has a resting place. It is the demand o every maimed and scarred warrior who loves the country for which he offered his life, and the brave men of the blue and gray, who made or r battle-fields immortal by the beroism of the American people, would efface forever the estrangements of war, and welcome peace and brotherhood as the crowning victory of the noblest government of the earth. There must be peace for the sake of peace. The prostrated business of the country must have peace! The railing of songs upon the widespread distress and bankruptey and want which prevail throughout every productive industry and every channel of trade. Hate will revive no thrift; inflamed resentments will not break the s'lence of the mills; the bitter memories of the war will not bring comfort to breadless homes; the recital of the madne-s of the treason of a generation now half perished from amongst us, will call no idle sinews to required labor; the horrors of Andersonville and of Libby, so fearfully avenged in the flood-tide of the passions of war, will whisper no words of hope to trembling credit, and the re-echoes of the violence of subjugated insurgents, uttered in the keen anguish of despair, will not for a moment stay the destruction that is sweeping over the paralyzed energies of the people. A convulsive campaign of studied appeals to sectional hate, cruelly mocks every suffering business man and every idle laborer in the land. It is a foe of capital and of industry. It consigns half the continent to misrule, robbery and desolation. It impoverishes the South, where there should be prosperity and generous tribute to our debt and expenditures, and throws the whole burden of the government upon the North, now struggling al-most hopelessly against universal prostration and embarrassment. It is a war without a single man!y at tribute of war. It is wanton war against the earnest efforts of two mighty sections for peace. It is a crime against free government; a prosperity, and if it shall triumph, the North and the South once enemies, but now reunited by indissoluble ties, will be doomed to common misfortune. There will be pitiless poverty in all that gladdens and ennobles a people and a terrible plenty of all that divides and degrades them.

There must be peace for reform! Corruption holds high carnival in the fountains of power, national, Sinte and municipal. It has per-meated everywhere. Like the un-seen miasma that insensibly saps the life of its victims, it has coursed its way into every temple of authority; i..to our social system; into our busin ss channels, and even the altar is almost daily taught its pollution. It stains the Grant administration from the highest to the lowest of its derendents, and its chief leaders recoil from the severe crucible a suffering people would demand for them. We have reached the deep descent of what was once dignified and honored authority, where to be honest is to be driven from trust, and with the approval of the first legislative tri-bunal of the nation. We see the most responsible gifts of the administration dispensed as rewards for faitblessness to law and successful resistance to justice. We see great Common wealths in the South given up as the prey of thieves and adven-

There must be peace as the harbinturers; their elections perverted by riotous mockeries of the will of the people, and the President, the Senate WEDNESDAY,....SEPTEMRES 6, 1876 ers to give victory to usurpers and plunderers. We see troops estentatiously thrown upon peaceable communities on the threshold of a national election to invite the tional election, to invite the cun-ning of the lawless to provoke disorder that the innocent may be disfranchised and punished. We see carpet-b ggers, who would not be trusted within sight of a village tiil, monuments of a nation's shame in the United States Senate, and crawling into Gubernatorial chairs in spite of popular defeats, and guarded by every department of the government as if they were the jewels of freedom. We see corruption surging unchallenged about the very throne itself; the strong arm of power reached out to stay the avenging blow of justice, and the few faithful public servants who labored to assert the majesty of the law, striped for their devotion, defamed for their integrity and dismantled of their authority. We see great states in the North grinding in the prison-houses of corrupt leaders, who have usurped the purty machinery and made themselves masters of the people. The honors of the State have been bartered to the most achieve the problems of the people. complished in political infamy, and the substance of the tax payers has been perverted to peculation and debauchery. And we see great cities as great sores on the body politicpolluting the ballot, degrading official trust, and giving consuming waste and debt and taxation as the logical fruits of their governments. There must be peace for reform.

There must be peace to bring faithless rulers to accountability. Eight years ago the nation declared for lasting peace. Peace was the slogan that rallied the people to the support of the hero of Appomatt x; and they rejoiced as he taught peace by dividing his highest honors with the Confederate warrior Longstreet, the Confederate Senator Orr, the Confederate soldier and jurist Akerman, and many others of lesser note. nearly eight years President Grant has been empowered to strengthen peace throughout the land. He had every department of the government in political sympathy with himself, and ample authority to enforce his mandates. He had Senators obedient to his will on partizan issues, and he and they had but to enforce honesty and maintain law, and peace would have been supreme. But ambition bred debauchery; debauchery begat disorder and crime, and violence was summoned to defend the disturbers of the peace and to punish those who rleaded for government and law. Profligacy and greed became the painfully prominent attributes of political power,and througout its countess streams demoralization spread a withering blight. And now the authority that has been charged with the peace of the nation for eight years, is brought before the great tribunal of the American people for judgment of approval or condemnation. If there not peace, it must answer for it If it has rejected peace, it must be execrated and overthrown, for the people created it in the love of peace and will not accept discord and hate as its offering. They are sick at heart of sectional strife. In their extreme distress and embarrasment d want they ask some other gar lands of eight years of trust, than the flaming wreath of a divided and resential people, and they will de-mand peace that they may take an account of their s'ewards. In vain will Cameron train his guns and marshal his gleaming bayonets in the contest, and idle will be the bloody shirt declamation of Morton and Conkling and Blaine and Kilpairick as they flaunt the banner of endless hate before a people who long for fraternity, that they make a united effort, over the graves of the dead and the passions of long-ended strife, for common prosperity and common brotherhood. Federal and Confederate, with the distinction effaced by the sword, look out through appalling misrule for some relief from the universal distress that besets them, and they demand peace that they may restore to prosperity the country they have made illustrious in the flame of battle. There must be peace; and in peace and for peace, North and South will enter the solemn Centennial judgment of the Republic in behalf of Honesty, Liberty and Law.

Deweese on the Republican Party of North Carolina.

The following is an extract from a card published in the Cleaveland

(Ohio) Plaindealer, by Hon. John The leader on last Saturday saw fit to devote a half column of its editorial matter to what it termed a specimen reformer, and to charge me with some shortcomings. Amongst other things they say I twice bought my way into congress. This is true in this respect, as the chief editor of the Leader should by this time well know after his persistent chase after the Swiss mission, that you get nothing from the republican party but what you buy and pay for. I was twice elected by the republican party to congress, and on both occasions I was compelled to buy the leaders of that party to keep them selling my election. I laid James H. Harris $1,000 to keep him from bolting, two weeks after my first nomination, and $2,000 the second to keep him from supporting Seymour for President in 1868. I was also compelled to pay John A. Hyman, now a repubcan member of congress, $500 for his influence. I paid C. L. Harris, the Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee of North Carolina to keep him from selling my election to my opponent-in short I was compelled to pay money for any favor I ever received from the Republican party. Their offices appeared to be in the market for sale and I purhased them, like any other doubtful stock on which speculation is made. I know of no friend of mine who had any favor from either his party or its leaders he did not pay

Note Presented Offering Mediation-England Won't Help Turkey Under any Circumstances-Alexanatz Occupied by the Turks .- The Town Deserted by Civilians-An Explorer

London, Sept. 5 .- A Vienna dispatch to the Times says that the representative of each power has presented a note similar but not identical to Turkey; that the Princes of Servia and Montenegro desire peace and offer mediation.

A dispatch from Constantinople says the British ambassador has presented a demand for an armistice to be followed by peace negotiations. England's declaration that if Turkey's refusal should lead to armed foreign intervention the Porte must not reckon on the British Government, caused surprise and disappointment. No secret was made that Russia was the power likely to interfere, but in spite of the English declaration, Turkey may think that in the decisive moment of an impending one-sided Russian intervention, England's national interests will have weight.

A special from Belgrade to the Daily News states that General Horva tovick occupies Alexanatz with ten battalions. Tehernayeff's headquarters are at Deligrad. The Minister of War has declared that an attack on the Turks must be made immediately. If the flank movement of the Turks is not checked, Alexanatz and Deligrad will have to be abandoned. The decisive battle of the war would then be fought in the open valley, where the Turks would have the ad-

The Daily News' special from Vienna says Tchernayeff has ordered civilians to leave Alexanatz, and the town is now quite deserted. The Servians hold the northern redoubts with a small force. The main body has gone to Deligrad. The Turks are preparing to ford the Morava, the bridges over which have been destroyed.

Crook and Terry Separated .- The Campaign Regarded as a Wild Goose Chase--Indians Demand Two Soldiers. Make Threats and Frighten Settlers-- Another Report that Sitting Bull is Dead.

ST. PAUL, Sept. 5 .- Advices from the north bank of the Yellow Stone say that Terry has divided the command, Crook moving eastward of the Little Missouri. Terry crossed the Yellow Stone and marched north and east. The steamer Yellow Stone was fired into while going up the river, and one was killed.

CHICAGO, Sept. 5 .- The Inter Ocean's Bismarck special, says the latest by courier arriving to-day from the expedition, is as follows: The general feeling among both officers and men is that the campaign has been and wild goose chase. No Indians have been seen of late with the exception of occasional small bands making their appearance for the purpose of stealing, or harrassing small parties engaged in the movement of supplies on the Yellowstone. The main column has not succeeded overtaking Sitting Bull. Orders have been received by Terry for the establishment of a cantonment at the mouth of Tongue River, for winter quarters.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5 .- A dispatch from Portland, Oregon, last night, says the Nez Perces Indians have made a formal demand upon the commandment at Fort Walla Walla for the surrender of two men who killed an Indian near there last spring, and threaten to burn every house in the valley within two weeks in the event of a refusal. The settlers are much alarmed, and a company of cavalry has been sent to protect them.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.-A special dispatch from Terry's headquarters. dated August 27th, says it is confidently asserted that Sitting Bull fell in the battle of Big Horn, His brother, it appears, came into Fort Berthold and gave a full account of his death. From the description of the man who killed him, Col. Reno says it is certain that he fell by the hand of Capt. Keogh, under whom the last desperate fight was made, as shown by the disposition of his battalion.

LITTLE ROCK, Sept. 5.-The election is quiet here and throughout the State. It will require the official vote to decide this city. The State is conceded as overwhelmingly Democratic.

Negroes Shooting White Men in Louisiana.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 5 .- Acting Governor Antoine, of Louisiana, has a dispatch from Red River Parish, stating that Z. T. Webster, clerk of the District Court, has been waylaid and shot but no killed. Accounts from Bostrop state that the negroes are prowling about in that section shooting white men, several of whom have been killed.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

THE VERMONT ELECTION.

Preliminary View of the Field-The Republicans Carry the State and Make Gains.

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, Sept. E. -Appearances indicate that the exciting canvass of the past few weeks will culminate to-day in bringing to the poils nearly every voter in the S'ate. Free conveyance is furnished to every voter. Reports from all quarters show that no such enthusiasm has been manifested since Lincoln's first election.

The Republicaes consider that there is strong probability of an increase of 5,000 votes over their majority of 1874. The Democrats are sanguine that the election will show a reactionary sentiment in favor of their party.

MONTPELIER, VT., Sept. 5.-The voting is very spirited.

A full canvass of Montpelier shows that there are 1,025 males over 21 years of age in the town. Of this number the selectmen throw out 133, leaving on the voting list 892 names eligible to vote. Both parties are hopeful of a majority. The Democrats charge that the Republicans are bringing many persons from Montpelier to vote for Fairbanks for Govergor, and thus make a good show at the State Capital. By law, a person having legal residence in the State can vote in any town and for county officers in any town of the county, if residing therein.

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, VT., Sept. 5.-LATER.-Sixty towns in thirteen counties give Fairtanks 15,765; Biugham 7,148; the same towns in 1874 gave Peck 11,358, Bingham 5,011. Republican gain 2 270, Returns come in slowly.

MASSACHUSETTS.

The Republican Convention-Rice Re-Nominated-Grant Endorsed.

Boston, Sept. 5 .- Boutwell presided in the Republican Convention. In the course of his speech, he said : Gov. Tilden has no chance of an election except by the votes of States which, if left to themselves, would support Gov. Hayes. If, then, under these circu astances, Gov. Tilden is declared President by the two houses of Congress in February next, his advancement will be due to a usurpation as unscrupulous and as bloody as that by which Napoleon III. passed from the Presidency of France to the throne and title of Em peror of the French."

Rice was re-nominated for Governor and Horatio G. Knight for Lieutenant Governor.

The platform says: "We hold that the act of Congress fixing the date for resumption is a help and not a hindrance to that end. The retiring President of the United States is entitled to the gratitude of the country scrvice, for the firmness with which, as its chief magistrate, he has so often

Me for his achievements in its military credit, and for the good sense with which, upholding the prerogative of his office against the encroachments of a Democratic House of Representatives, he has reminded that branch of the Government of the propriety of confining its attention to its legitimate functions."

Explosions and Loss of Life.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.-An explosion occurred at the government works at Hell Gate to-day; three men were instantly killed; one blown to atoms; a number of others were wounded, two, it is thought, fatally. The explosion took place on a large screw on which a number of men have been employed for a long time, preparing the primers, by which the final explosion is to be made. The cause of the explosion is yet unexplained.

Southern Home: For seven years, says our informant, a son of John Hucks, a farmer living on the Tuck-asege road, has not spoken to his father, except through his mother, or some other member of the family. The boy is 10 years old, and has no impediment in his speech; neither has he any aversion to his parent, who has always treated him kindly. The case is a curious one. The case is a curious one.

A special to the Petersburg Index-Appeal from Enfield, dated September 2d, says: "The largest dwelling in town, owned by J. H. Parker and occupied by Dr. L. W. Batchelor, was entirely destroyed by fire this evening. The sparks passed over the main part of town, communicated with a stable on the outskirts and burned that to the ground. The whole town was in danger. The loss cannot yet be accertained."

The Observer says that at chambers in Charlotte, last Friday evening, the case of Sophia Means vs. Manlius Means, was argued before his Honor Judge Schenck, by Jones & Johnston for plaintiff, and Wilson & Son for defendant, Plaintiff had received fifteen hundred dollars, the money as a distribution share of an estate, since her marriage with defendant, and gave it to her husband, the defendant, to pay for a tract of land which she had bargained for. The husband failed to pay for the land, and had used three hundred dollars of the money. His Honor granted the mo-tion for a receiver, and ordered the money to be paid into court immediately, which was done. His Honor on a case agreed, also decided that the wife was entitled to a judgment, ordering the defendant to restore the money to her; from this judgment, defendant appealed, and in the meantime, the money is in the hands of a
